It's not too soon to start planning for the 2005 National Jamboree.

A limited number of slots are available for Boy Scouts from Europe to join more than 40,000 others in creating the 10th largest city in Virginia at Fort A.P. Hill during the Jamboree.

Transatlantic Council provides scouting support for DoD and State Department families in Europe and North Africa. The council has a flexible Jamboree program designed to accommodate the special challenges our military families face. The council approves all attendees.

Requirements: You must be a First Class scout and at least 12 years old by July 1, 2005, and turn 18 after August 3, 2005.
